

SBAR

An Error Prevention Tool for our High Reliability Journey

SBAR (Situation, Background, Assessment, Recommendation) is an effective and efficient way to communicate important information. SBAR provides a standardized method of communication of pertinent information from a clinical encounter. SBAR empowers all members of the healthcare team and allows parties to have common expectations related to what and how the communication is structured.

